LIST OF APPENDICIES

Appendix 1	Leave of Absence Request Form	15
------------	-------------------------------	----

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The school's application of the leave of absence arrangements will have regard to the need for consistency and fairness to all staff.
- 1.2 Leave of absence during term time is only permitted in emergency situations and in accordance with the leave of absence policy. Any requests for leave of absence whether it is with or without pay should be made in writing to the Headteacher before the leave is required (wherever possible).
- 1.3 It is the Headteacher / governing body's prerogative to refuse leave in those cases where it is considered inappropriate, subject to an appeal to the Governing Body. There is no automatic right to leave of absence. All applications for leave will be considered having regard to the needs of the school.

2. EMERGENCY LEAVE

- 2.1 Employees with a caring responsibility for dependant(s) are able to request time off to deal with an unexpected or sudden problem in relation to a dependant, and make any longer term arrangements.
- 2.2 A dependant can be the:
 - child
 - parent
 - partner
- 2.3 Emergency leave is not intended to cover cases of illness or injury (leave or unpaid leave must be used), unless they are of a serious nature. A sudden breakdown in care arrangements will be covered but this does not normally extend to notified school closures as these are generally known in advance.
- 2.4 In the event of an unforeseen situation occurring, no more than 1 working day can be taken at any one time to deal with an emergency. In addition, no less than ½ day can be deducted from the emergency leave entitlement at any one time.
- 2.5 Employees are allowed to make application for up to 5 days Emergency Leave over a rolling 12 month period (starting from the date of the first request) on a paid basis for dealing with emergencies. After paid emergency leave is exhausted; further unpaid emergency leave can be requested.
- 2.6 Employees must make a request in writing to their Headteacher who will authorise the request as soon as is reasonably practicable. Employees must also get verbal authorisation from their Headteacher prior to taking emergency leave. If the Headteacher is unavailable, they should seek authorisation from the Deputy Headteacher or another member of the Leadership Team.

3. BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

- 3.1 When a death occurs to an employee's spouse or civil partner, partner (opposite or same sex), parent, stepparent, children or stepchildren, or grandchild (where the employee is the primary carer) then the employee may take bereavement leave with pay from the day of death to the day of the funeral to make funeral arrangements.
- 3.2 In certain circumstances an employee may be responsible for making the funeral arrangements for someone other than a parent, partner or child. In such circumstances, leave with pay may be granted from day of death to day of funeral.
- 3.3 The employee should discuss the situation with their Headteacher and the number of days bereavement leave required agreed. The Headteacher will then confirm the amount of leave required in writing.
- 3.4 In the case of the death of other relatives not included in point 3.1, employees will be entitled to bereavement leave with pay for the day of funeral. In all other cases, time off will be considered by the Headteacher on a case-by-case basis. The school appreciates that death of a family member can have a significant impact on an employee and recognises that additional non-paid time off maybe granted. Application for unpaid leave should be made to the Headteacher.

4. UNPAID PARENTAL LEAVE

- 4.1 Parental leave is a right to take time off work to look after a child or make arrangements for the child's welfare. Parents can use it to spend more time with children and strike a better balance between work and family commitments. The leave is unpaid.

4.2 Entitlement to Parental Leave

4.2.1 Employees are entitled to 18 weeks unpaid parental leave if:

4.2.2 they have at least one year's continuous service with the Council

4.3 Evidence of entitlement to Parental Leave

- 4.3.1 Evidence may take the form of a child's birth certificate, papers confirming a child's adoption or the date of placement in adoption cases. The relevant document only needs to be shown once for each child at the time of the initial request. A photocopy should be taken and attached to the parental leave log.

4.4 Leave and Pay

- 4.4.1 Each parent can take 18 weeks parental leave for each child over an eighteen year period. This means that both mothers and fathers, if they have twins or adopt more than one child at a time can both take 18 weeks' unpaid leave for each child during the first five years of parenting.
- 4.4.2 An employee can take leave in blocks of one week or more, up to a Maximum of 4 weeks in a year. This also applies to adoptive parents.
- 4.4.3 Under this scheme parts of a day cannot be taken as unpaid parental leave. One week's parental leave is equal to the length of time that an employee is normally required to work in a week. Consequently, employees working on a part time basis or who are in a job share arrangement are entitled to pro-rata parental leave.
- 4.4.4 Some employees' working patterns vary from week to week. In such cases, an average working week needs to be calculated as a fraction of the period for which he or she is required to work in a year.

Under no circumstances can Parental Leave be paid.

4.6 Returning to work after Parental Leave

- 4.6.1 At the end of parental leave, an employee is guaranteed the right to return To the same job as before if the leave was for a period of 4 weeks or less.
- 4.6.2 If it was for a longer period the employee is entitled to return to the same job or if that is not reasonably practicable, a similar job which has the same or better status, terms and conditions as the old job.
- 4.6.3 When parental leave lasts for 4 weeks or less and it follows ORDINARY MATERNITY LEAVE, the woman is entitled to return to the same job. If The period is for more than 4 weeks, a woman is entitled to return to the Same job, or if that is not reasonably practicable, a similar job which has The same or better status, terms and conditions as the old post.

4.6.4 When parental leave lasts 4weeks or less and it follows ADDITIONAL MATERNITY LEAVE, the woman is entitled to return to the same job she would have been entitled to return to after her additional maternity leave period.

4.6.5 The employment contract continues during an absence of parental leave, unless it is terminated by the school or the employee. This means that an employee continues to benefit from his or her statutory employment rights during parental leave.

4.6.6 An employee returning to work after parental leave is entitled to benefit From any general improvements to the rate of pay (or other terms and Conditions) which may have been introduced for his or her grade while s/he has been away.
